WHIRLAWAY:

Mme. Mates, wife of the Yugoslavian Ambassador, is busy meeting the town. She made her first official party appearance at the recent fete given by Associate Justice and Mrs. Harold H. Burton; on Friday she was honored at a party of her own. This was the luncheon given for her by Mme. Ulises F. Espaillat at the Army and Navy Club.

Meeting Mme. Mates were Senora de Castro, wife of the Ambassador of El Salvador; Senora de Vicioso, wife of the Dominican Minister; Senora de Vega, of the Dominican Republic; Mrs. Peyton March, Mrs. Preston McGoodwin, Mrs. John Ferry, Mrs. William W. Bride, Mme. Vladimir Rybar, Mrs. Harry Davidow and Mrs. Nat Gavender of St. Louis, Mo.

Dancing on Saturday evening was a cooperative venture for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Braden and a group of their friends. All together as hosts for the whirl which took place at the Bradens' home were—to list some of them—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nitze, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Alsop, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bissell, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Graham, Mr. and Mrs. John Bross and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wisner.
